When Death Knocks on Your Family's Door

Not so long ago someone in our family died suddenly. Our life stopped in that moment; we wanted to step back and say "we love you" just one more time, but instead we had to plan a funeral. We were not prepared to make any of the decisions, yet we had to face the heartache of burying the person who was at the very center of our lives.

When our family met at Skelton Funeral Home in Reform, AL, we were treated with compassion. They listened to our questions and gently led us through the steps for planning the funeral. David Skelton, Austin Guy, the office staff and ground workers; worked together as a team. We are grateful for the honor, dignity and respect that they showed to our loved one and to our grieving family. Every detail was handled in a graceful and perfect manner. It was a blessing for our family to be in the care of Skelton Funeral Home during one of our darkest days. 4/24-5/1 pd
